From 1 January 2019, the largest UK banks must separate core retail banking from investment banking in order to support financial stability and make any potential failures easier to manage without the need for a government bailout. The banks have begun to address ring-fencing, each taking their own approach about which side of the bank is best suited for local authorities. In the case of Barclays, the council were assigned to the “investment” bank on the basis of turnover. The ratings of this bank subsequently reduced below the council strategy’s minimum acceptable level, so they have been removed until such time the ratings meet the council’s lending criteria.

Officers will continue to seek the best rate, balanced against risk, at the time of investment. Use of call and notice accounts with Santander, Lloyds and Clydesdale continue. These accounts provide access to flexible deposits, with a range of access options and interest rates. Treasury Bills, an AA/Aa2/AA (very securely) rated, short dated form of Government debt which are issued by the Debt Management Office via a weekly tender are also included on the lending list, offering the Council an additional secure investment option.
