

4.10 Motions without Notice

4.10.1 The following motions may be moved without notice:

- (a) to appoint a Chair of the meeting at which the motion is moved;
- (b) in relation to the accuracy of the minutes;
- (c) to change the order of business in the agenda;
- (d) to refer something to an appropriate body or individual;
- (e) to appoint a Committee or Member arising from an item on the summons for the meeting;
- (f) to receive reports or adoption of recommendations of Committees or officers and any resolutions following from them;
- (g) to withdraw a motion;
- (h) to amend a motion;
- (i) to proceed to the next business;
- (j) that the question be now put; (k) to adjourn a debate;
- (l) to adjourn a meeting;
- (m) to suspend a particular Council Procedure Rule;
- (n) to exclude the public and press in accordance with the law;
- (o) to not hear further a Member named :
 - (i) If a member persistently ignores or disobeys the ruling of the Chair or behaves irregularly, improperly or offensively or deliberately obstructs the business of the meeting any member may move 'That the member named be not further heard' which, if seconded, must be put to the vote without discussion.
 - (ii) If the same member continues to misbehave the Chair will either move 'that the member named leave the meeting for the item being discussed' (in which case the motion shall be determined without seconding or discussion) or adjourn the meeting for such time as they think fit.
 - (iii) If a motion, 'that the member named leave the meeting' is approved by a meeting the Chair will then order the member concerned to leave the room for the item being discussed. If the member refuses to go the Chair can order that they be removed.
- (p) to give the consent of the Council where its consent is required by this Constitution
